

The House of Hope Macon

Bible Study

October 24, 2017

Are You In A Committed Relationship?

I. The Anatomy of Commitment

Psalm 37:5-6

- A. Etymology of commitment: the committing of oneself, pledge, promise is attested from 1793; an obligation or engagement(1864).
- B. Hebrew meaning of commit: galal - to roll away.

II. The Assignment of Commitment

Matthew 4:19; Luke 9:23-27

- A. Follow the Lord
- B. Focus on the Lord
- C. Flow with the Lord
 - i. in your loving
 - ii. in your living
 - iii. in your leading
 - iv. in your leaving
 - v. in your lamenting
 - vi. in your lending

III. The Agonies of Commitment

- A. There's a cross

Luke 9:23-27

- B. There's a cost

I Kings 17:7-14

IV. The Advantages of Commitment

- A. There will be the Release of Blessings

Isaiah 1:19-20

- B. There will be Relief from Burdens

Matthew 11:28-30

- C. There will be the Reciprocation of Benefits

Philippians 2:5-11

THE HOUSE OF HOPE MACON